MICHAEL CLARK COMPANY

ABOUT MICHAEL CLARK COMPANY

Hailed as “British dance’s true iconoclast”, Michael Clark is a defining cultural figure of our time. Since emerging in the 1980s as a prodigy at London’s Royal Ballet School, he has remained at the forefront of innovation in dance, collaborating with such compelling artists as Sarah Lucas, Leigh Bowery, Peter Doig and Charles Atlas, and musicians from Wire and The Fall to Jarvis Cocker.

From the outset, Michael Clark’s performances have been marked by a mixture of technical rigour and experimentation, intense and fine-tuned choreography intersecting with elements of punk, Dada, pop and rock. His productions repeatedly break new ground, provoking and electrifying audiences all over the world, winning rave reviews and countless awards for the Company’s dancers and Michael Clark himself, who was made a CBE in 2014 for services to dance,.

Michael Clark founded his own company in 1984. It has since toured worldwide to perform at leading houses in Europe, North America, Asia and Australia, as well as on its home stage at the Barbican in London, where it has been a resident company since 2005. Michael Clark Company is proud of having introduced dance to new audiences by performing at unorthodox venues such as the Glastonbury Festival, where it was the opening act on the Pyramid Stage in 2015; the legendary Barrowland Ballroom in Glasgow; and contemporary art museums, including Tate Modern in London and the Whitney Museum in New York, as well as through its ongoing collaborations with leading artists, fashion designers, musicians and filmmakers.

PRAISE FOR MICHAEL CLARK’S NEW WORK “to a simple rock’n’roll ... song”

“A triptych of abstract dances that look fantastic, sound terrific and knocked me sideways. Clark has always been a huge talent, but here his artistry reaches a zenith in which being chic and being smart are allied to a real passion for dance.”

The Times, 11 October 2016

“Michael Clark has perhaps the most useful attribute that any artist of any kind can have: he is incapable of being boring.”

The Telegraph, 8 October 2016

“Raw, dynamic and witty... Mixing the sacred and the profane, the classical and the raw, to sophisticated and often hypnotic effect.”

The Guardian, 10 October 2016

“The night I went, there was a standing ovation. As the lights came on, the man beside me gasped: “Just wow.” I think he spoke for us all.”

Evening Standard, 10 October 2016
